

PINEWOOD COMBINED PROBUS CLUB PRIVACY POLICY

Clubs are subject to the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988. Clubs could be in a vulnerable situation should this Act be invoked by an aggrieved party.

"The information collected in relation to members shall be held in accordance with the information privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act. The club shall ensure that it complies with such information privacy principles and shall not disclose any such information, except in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act."

Members

It is a condition of membership of this club that each member consents pursuant to the Privacy Act to personal information in the form of his/her name, residential address, telephone and mobile number, email address and office held in club (where necessary) being included in a membership list.

Club Internal Directory

Pinewood Combined Probus Club will ensure, prior to publication of Members Directory, that all members have given approval for inclusion. Members retain the right to request withdrawal of their personal details from this publication prior to printing and circulating to members.

Notice should be included in the Directory: 'This Directory of Members is for the exclusive use of members of the Pinewood Combined Probus Club and should not be made available to persons who are not members.'

Club Newsletter

The Club will include an endorsement in the club newsletter stating – 'Private and Confidential for Probus use only and is not to be used for any other purpose'.

Welfare

Medical condition details should not be made available to any person or body without prior approval of the member concerned.

Medical Cards are not the responsibility of the club or Tour Leader; they must remain the responsibility of individuals to keep current and to hold personally. Our insurers will not defend a claim of negligence against a club or member for not providing a medical card belonging to a member or guest in the case of an emergency.

Probus

New Members
